POLITICAL NOTES

As the various rewards which were at one time offered for Greeley's head in some of the Southern States have not been withdrawn, it is supposed that he will "run well" in that section when he once gets down there

The Pittsburg Commercial says "It is pretty well understood that Senator Thurman and most of the leading Ohio Democrats are secretly opposed to Greeley Nor is this disgust of the entire business confined to Ohio It is everywhere, and a grand stampede may be confidently looked for"

The Democracy have given up Pennsylvania. The Pittsburg Courier says that three weeks ago the supporters of Buckalew, for Governor, were looking for bets on his election Now, bets on Hartranft find no takers, and bets on Greeley are as much out of the question as the Plantamour comet.

Among the most blatant supporters of Greeley who are crying out for civil service reform in California, are Wm H Leaty, a defaulting postmaster appointed by Andrew Johnson, and Thos H. Baker, defaulting Receiver at the Visalia Land Office

Buckalew, the Democratic nominee for Governor of Pennsylvania, is mum on the subject of Greeley He has not declared his choice for President and it is believed that he will not do so until after his own political fate is determined in October

Gen Joseph Hooker, whom the Democratic papers claim to be for Greeley, stated explicitly while on a visit to Vallejo some two months ago that he should support Grant for President He is not for Greeley as a San Francisco paper represented so says the Vallejo Chronicle

Since April last, in the little valley of Sonoita, Arizona with a population of only about thirty, thirteen have been brutally murdered by the Apaches the wounded (many of them crippled for life or destined to die a lingering death) are to be seen in almost every cabin, and destitute women and orphan children fill the land with their lamentations We have hoped and prayed that this slaughter would have an end, and that peace would be restored to this scourged country, but we have hoped against hope We have no time nor heart to comment further upon the fearful slaughter Since April last the savages have made the country red with human gore the flow of this current must soon stop however, for want of victims

The Caucus Farce

The [illegible] of the Ring candidate for the Senate [illegible] whip the Republican members in[illegible] last Monday evening was [illegible] ignominious [illegible]. Of course the friends of the Ring and [illegible] expected to make the most of that last struggle to apply the gag rule but it was not expected that men pretending to any degree of regard [illegible] would resort to statements that [illegible] with [illegible] as a means of giving that [illegible] failure the semblance of success.

The truth about the whole matter is that out of the thirty four members who went into caucus Mr Mitchell did not at any time receive more than twenty-seven votes. Mr Corbett's name was not placed before the meeting, and those who did not vote for Mitchell desiring not to be bound by the action of the fragment of caucus declined to vote for any person. A motion was then made that the vote be declared unanimous and four of the non participating members refused to consent to that, and two others stated to the meeting that they did not consider themselves bound to vote for the nominee of a caucus which did not contain a sufficient number to elect a Senator under any circumstances. A Senator arose and said there were not enough Republicans in the caucus to elect, and that the moment any Democrat should vote for Mr Mitchell he should change his vote to Mr Corbett. One of the Ring members then asked the Senator if he would not stand by Mr Mitchell in case only one or two Democrats voted for him. The Senator answered that it had been continuously and loudly urged against Mr Corbett by the Ring crowd that if a man received any aid from the Democrats that made him a Democrat and that he, the Senator, proposed to hold them to that rule that whenever Mr Mitchell should thus be made into a Democrat he would consider himself at liberty to choose between Democrats and should choose Mr Corbett. He was followed by a Republican member whose support the ring had always confidently claimed, who agreed with the Senator, and declared his purpose to act in the same manner. So the "conference" disbanded, having accomplished nothing except to show how weak a hold the ring caucus has upon even those who are regarded as its friends. The members themselves simply laugh at the idea of its action being considered binding upon the party.

It is an old saying that a person who is very suspicious of his neighbors needs watching himself. The truth of this proposition is strikingly illustrated by the conduct of the Ring candidate for the Senate. He and his strikers have been accusing the friends of Mr Corbett, without the shadow of truth, of forming an alliance with the Democracy, and have declared that any man is a Democrat who would receive Democratic votes under any circumstances. But it now transpires that the Ring candidate himself is calculating to secure his election by Democratic votes. This is evident from the significant question asked by a Ring member of a State Senator "Won't you stand by Mr Mitchell, if only one or two Democrats vote for him?" Nobody ever supposed that either Mitchell or Corbett would refuse to accept the vote of any person who has the right to vote and it argues no bad faith or want of party fealty for a candidate to accept any vote that he may receive without placing himself under any obligations to the opposition. This, we suppose, Mr Mitchell or Mr Corbett may rightfully do. We shall be exceedingly glad, for the sake of Mr Mitchell's standing as a politician, and for the Republican party itself, if it shall turn out that all the circumstances which now seem to point to still closer relations between him and some of the Democratic leaders, are explainable on some other hypothesis.

The Statesman has made the discovery that it is easier to call names than to give reasons for adhering to a bad cause. Consequently its columns are now mainly devoted to the extremely polite exercise of calling the editor of the OREGONIAN a "hired man." The OREGONIAN has been conducted by salaried editors for the last twelve years, that we know of and how much longer we have no knowledge and it has never during that time had but one man on its editorial staff who did not regard himself as worth more than eight hundred dollars and that one was only a local. The present editor receives a salary, it is true but he belongs to the high priced class. Eight hundred dollars wouldn't begin to fetch him. Cumtux, Captain?

DIRECT.—The Ring paper says we "insinuate" that Mr Mitchell said "Whatever is Holladay's politics is my politics and whatever Holladay wants I want." Whereupon the Ring paper remarks that we lack the manliness to make the charge direct and insinuates that the Ring candidate would like an opportunity to cram this lie down somebody's throat.

We had intended to be understood as not merely insinuating that such was the fact but it appears we failed to make our meaning understood. We beg the Ring paper and the Ring candidate to consider it a direct charge and demand the proof.

The Republicans of Massachusetts in their late State Convention declared themselves explicitly in favor of woman suffrage. As the State is strongly Republican the action of the Convention may be considered as a pledge that the fair sex will soon be admitted to the polls there. This would be a triumph for them, and the first great triumph for Wyoming and Utah are small in population and intellectual influence as compared with Massachusetts, which claims to contain the Hub of the Universe and has certainly produced far more than its share of great men in the last hundred years.

Complete official returns from Maine show that the Republican candidates for Congress have been elected by the following majorities: First District—Burleigh 2 19[illegible] Second—Frye 4 177 Third—Blaine 3,[illegible]40 Fourth—Hersey 5 159, Fifth—Hale 3 031. The aggregate majority is 18 152 against [illegible] at the last election, showing a clear gain of 8 1[illegible]

A Democratic paper [illegible] Chas Welles and Blair members of Lincoln's Cabinet all support Greeley. Yes and they all supported Seymour [illegible] years ago. And what came of it? Grant was elected by an overwhelming majority and will be again notwithstanding the opposition of these old fossils.

In public the ring say any man who receives a Democratic vote is a Democrat. In private conference they say "Won't you stand by Mr Mitchell [illegible] vote for him."

FROM THE CAPITAL

(FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT)

SALEM, Ogn, Sept 25, 1872

"All is lovely," was the dispatch from a politician in Salem to his friends in Portland, six years ago and again the same remark has been used in the same connection with perhaps the same significance, but the remark is more applicable to all other things than to the political situation. The weather, the reports of crops, the business of the place, the prospects for the Fair all are so favorable as to justify the use of the term.

THE JOINT CONVENTION,

To which all parties have been looking forward so eagerly, held its first meeting ten minutes ago, and adjourned without accomplishing anything the vote standing 32 for Mitchell, 11 for Corbett 7 for Slater 4 for Nesmith 6 for Whitaker 8 for Prim and 1 for Gates. This seems to indicate a long struggle, and shows that it is simply a question of endurance. Both sides claim that eventually they will get enough Democrats to secure an election and both are bolstering up their forces with the same expectation. The question of the propriety of profiting by those votes is thus settled by common consent.

The intense feeling kept up on the subject of electing a Senator, seems to paralyze the energies of our legislators, and although they manage to get through with some business in the afternoons, such as appropriations for mileage and things of that kind, it is not likely that a great deal will be accomplished until the fight is over and the vanquished recover from the shock. When that is done, party ranks will close up, and while we hope there will be no partisan legislation, we may look for a good deal of work.

Mr Corwin's bill to abolish grand juries is attracting considerable attention, and its author expresses himself surprised and pleased at the favor with which it is received. There is no doubt that eventually the measure will succeed whether it does so at this session or not. The natural conservatism of the human mind takes alarm whenever an old institution is attacked, but as the world progresses the methods of bygone ages must be laid aside and others adopted which accord with modern ideas and institutions. Nothing can stand without intrinsic merits and if the Grand Jury system has nothing but its age for a recommendation it must give way just as an old stump is removed from a field, even though it has once supported a tree which bore golden fruit.

THEATRICAL

The play of the Octoroon last night at the Opera House deserves more than passing notice. The whole cast was well adapted and the parts were all rendered better than usual. Mr Vinson as Pete did the best acting I have ever seen. But where all did so well it must seem invidious to particularize and I can only say that they ought to repeat the play next week, and if they do it is sure to be demanded again.

Letter From Albany

ALBANY Sept 2[illegible] 1872

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

On Sunday and Monday we had quite a rain here. On Monday we had the heaviest hail storm ever known here, completely covering the ground. This has no doubt prevented many from being here who would otherwise have spent the entire week at the Fair. The weather is pleasant, however and the prospect for a large attendance is good. Albany presents quite a lively appearance this morning, farm wagons, with their covers and camp equipage and stock en route for the Fair grounds fill the streets. The City Fathers ordered the street lamps to be kept lighted, and an extra police force placed on duty and are prepared to pay all due attention to those who may be disposed to set at defiance the regulations of this usually quiet place.

Although harvesting is over many farmers are yet busy hauling in their grain to the depots along the railroad and river. There is an unusually large amount [illegible] stored at this place this season and were it not for the railroad carrying off large quantities the warehouses would have been full long ago.

Politics are not red hot in Old Linn by any means. Our [illegible] Congressman Hon Jas H Slater had an appointment to orate here on Friday evening last. After much newspaper advertising and many bills posted in the highways and byways when the hour arrived poor Slater found himself at the Court House alone, not one of the [illegible] faithful ready to [illegible] for Greeley being there to respond to his eloquence. The enthusiastic Slater was not to be deterred by this however and forthwith had new bills posted for Saturday night and engaged the Albany Brass Band to get up their [illegible] thinking surely this time his people would not forsake him. Saturday came the appointed hour and the [illegible] and drumming [illegible] Slater was almost alone. After waiting until nine o'clock Slater turned his battery of Greeleyism loose on an audience of forty men by actual count and a dozen or so of small boys.

Your correspondent was not in town and did not hear his speech but hear that the great burden of his harangue was his fear that in case Grant was elected his lack of firmness and discretion would render him a mere tool in the hands of designing men, while the lofty patriotism and great wisdom and firmness of the immortal Horace would deter designing men from even approaching him for evil purposes.

You can be assured that Linn county will not give a heavy Democratic vote in November next.

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT 26 1872

CITY.

CHINESE PEDAGOGUES.—A San Francisco exchange says that those brutal and ill bred minded gentlemen and youth who take special delight in throwing stones and setting dogs on Chinamen have now an excellent opportunity to learn good breeding, fine manners, educational attainments and high moral principle from a party lately landed here in accordance with the more enlightened policy that has been adopted by the Emperor of China through the influence of American teachings. There is at present in this city a distinguished Chinese mandarin Tsang Sat Sun by name who holds the distinguished position of Commissioner of Education for the Chinese Government He is a graduate of Hamilton College a man of rare executive ability, great natural talent developed and matured by education and of courtly refined manners The Chinese Government contemplates educating 150 youth of the brightest and most promising in the Empire, to be educated in this country, and for this purpose has appropriated $1,000,000 Twenty eight youth are to be selected each year from a picked body of 70 submitted to the Commissioner of Education and it is upon his judgment that they are chosen The first installment has reached this city under the charge of this high dignitary, and a fresh one will reach us every year for five years at which time it is to be hoped that the example will be largely followed by wealthy Chinese families who cannot but appreciate the vast benefits that must ensue to their country and its best interests by the adoption of such a course A few educated Chinese missionaries would find a ripe field of groveling ignorance and wickedness among their race in Portland in aiding the generous, Christian efforts being put forth by the several denominations to enlighten and civilize these people

RUN OVER.—Mr Jerry Knox while engaged in teaming yesterday, met with a severe accident near the ferry landing on the east side He was driving down the bank to go on board the ferry boat, with a loaded truck When about half way down, some brace connected with the brake lever suddenly gave way Mr Knox was thrown forward under the horses' feet A portion of the truck frame struck him on the breast He was fortunately, not injured by the frame, but was rolled over and thrown on one side so that one of the truck wheels passed over both his thighs He was seriously but not dangerously injured by the

SOLD OUT.—As announced several days ago by the dispatches, the Pacific Mail Steamship Company have purchased that portion of the business of the North Pacific Transportation Company on the southern routes The purchase includes the steamships California, Orizaba, Pacific and Senator The Pacific Mail Company have already assumed control of the business on the Northern California lines, and announces the for San Diego on Monday It is intimated that the purchase includes the Mexican line, and that the Northern California line will be transferred to the Oregon Steamship Company

DEPARTMENT RULINGS.—The following rulings of the Postoffice Department will be interesting to many Photographs sent through the mail in a envelope, open at the corner, are subject to letter postage The initials or name of the sender written on the wrapper of a newspaper or other printed matter additional to the address, subjects the package to letter postage. Unsealed circulars are permitted to pass through the mails at the rate of one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof regardless of the number sent provided the package does not exceed four pounds in weight

OPPOSITION LINE.—It is stated that there is soon to be an opposition line of steamers placed on between San Francisco and this port The steamer Orizaba, the first boat of the opposition line, will probably sail this morning. She will be followed by the Tabor next week. The Oregon Steamship Company's steamer Oriflamme will probably sail on Monday instead of Saturday, if there is any reason for the reported opposition A lively competition will cause a reduction in the price of fare and freight which will certainly meet with no public objection.

SHUT OFF.—The water will be shut off the Water Company's main on the Sixth street line from to Main at 7 o'clock this evening. The object is to make a connection of three fire plugs along that line, and to make the necessary connections. Persons who receive their supply of water from that main, would subserve their own convenience by drawing water enough for over night.

DENTISTS FINED.—We notice by the San Francisco papers that the Police Judge of that city a few days ago fined G W Cool the sum of for having assaulted S W Dennis with a Both combatants were dentists, and the difficulty originated from some professional difference between them Mr Cool is well known in this city, having practiced his profession here several years ago

REV W MORLEY PUNSHON.—This very distinguished and eloquent pulpit orator, who delivered two lectures in this city about one year ago is engaged to deliver a lecture at Music Hall, on the 2d of November His subject is "The Men of the Mayflower" We can safely promise a rare intellectual treat on that occasion to the critical audience of the "American Athens."

STILL OUT.—The bark Zouave is still out, from New York and no tidings of her off the bar. Some anxiety is being felt, as it has been more than 170 days since the date of her departure The Zouave brings a cargo of 1,600 tons of rail and iron for the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, and is chartered to load with wheat at this port for Liverpool at £4 15s, by Hewitt, Wilson &

POSTAL AFFAIRS.—The Postoffices at Antelope, Wasco county, and Netarts, Tillamook county have been discontinued mails to the latter office to go to Nestocton Yainax Jackson county, has been changed to Yainax A new Postoffice has been established at Kentuck Whitman county, W. T. Also, at Fairview, Owyhee county Idaho

TO CONGREGATE.—It is the habit of numerous "Hoodlums" to congregate these evenings on the street corners, use loud and boisterous language toward each other, or rudely demean themselves to passers These interesting groups of the rising generation have become an intolerable nuisance. The police should disperse such gatherings

GIVEN OUT.—The members of Company No 1 have been for several days agitating the question among themselves of attending the State Fair in full uniform, and with their engine We learn that owing to the proximity of the Fair and the want of time required to complete the necessary arrangements, the project has been abandoned

BURNING.—The timber and brush on the eastern side of the river near the bank at a point where the old railroad track crosses the slough beyond the residence of Jas B Stephens, was on fire yesterday At first the impression was that the whole work was in flames but the precise locality of the fire was soon determined

TO ARRIVE.—From the officers on board the Naval Wilkins, we learn that the brig Perpetua from San Francisco and the schooner Robert Cowan, from Honolulu, were both passed yesterday morning at Kalama in tow of the Mermoc These vessels will probably both arrive here this evening

GOING TO THE FAIR.—We understand that the Washington Guard contemplate visiting the State Fair next week as a company Should he company conclude they will probably be accompanied by the East Portland Band

ISSUED.—The report of the Committee on the Water supply for Portland which was published in the OREGONIAN last week has been issued in pamphlet form by order of the Common Council for distribution

ASSESSMENT ROLLS.—The usual copy of his assessment rolls for 1872 will be commenced by the assessor to-day The roll will be completed about the first of next month

BEACHED.—A little propeller used in towing scows and barges down the river is now being beached on the east side of the river to receive some necessary repairs

DEFERRED.—We have received a communication containing an account of the work done on the Locks at Oregon City, which we will publish to-morrow.

Half Alive
It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility They complain of no specific disease they suffer no positive pain but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensual pleasure to their more robust and energetic fellow beings
In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food every organ is starved every function interrupted
Now what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression The system needs rousing and strengthening not merely for an hour or two to sink afterwards into a more pitiable condition than ever (as it assuredly would if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to) but radically and permanently
How is this desirable object to be accomplished The answer to this question founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century is easily given Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Remember Boys Make Men

When you see a ragged urchin
Standing wistful in the street,
With torn hat and kneeless trowsers
Dirty face and bare red feet,
Pass not by the child unheeding,
Smile upon him—mark me when
He's grown he'll not forget it
For remember boys make men

When the buoyant [illegible] spirit
Overflows in boyish freak,
Chide your child in gentle measure—
Do not in [illegible] anger speak
[illegible] any other [illegible] some
Seeds of tender mercy [illegible]
Plants will grow and [illegible]
When the erring boy [illegible]

Have you never seen a grand [illegible]
With his eyes aglow with [illegible]
Bring to mind some [illegible]
Something said to him—[illegible]
Or relate some slight or [illegible]
With a brow all clouded [illegible]
He [illegible] they were to [illegible]
To remember boys make men

Let us try to add some pleasure
To the life of every boy
For each child needs tender interest
In its sorrow and its joy
Call our boys home by its brightness—
They avoid a gloomy den
And seek for comfort elsewhere
And remember boys make men

The Mountain Meadow Massacre

AFFIDAVIT OF EX BISHOP P K SMITH OF THE MORMON CHURCH

The subjoined affidavit by one of the least guilty parties in the above barbarous murder tends to show conclusively that the massacre was the act of the Mormon authorities

It will be remembered that a large company of emigrants on their way to California are known to have been killed, with the exception of the young children When their massacre was discovered the Mormons set afloat the story that they had perished by the hands of Indians, but from time to time circumstantial evidence has appeared indicating that they were murdered in cold blood by the Mormons in revenge for previous outrages upon the latter [illegible] in Illinois and Missouri A co[illegible] witness now says under oath that the Mormon militia attacked the emigrants, and after a fight of several days without result, sent a flag of truce offering them protection if they would lay down their arms. The t[illegible] being complied with, the entire party was butchered by their captors The affidavit is as follows

State of Nevada County of Lincoln ss Personally appeared before me Peter B Miller Clerk of Court of the Seventh Judicial District of the State of Nevada Philip Kingdom Smith, who being duly sworn on oath says My name is Philip Kingdom Smith I reside in the county of Lincoln, in the State of Nevada, I resided at Cedar City in the county of Iron, in the Territory of Utah, from A D 1852 to A D 1859 I was residing at Cedar City at the time of the massacre at Mountain Meadows, in said Territory of Utah I had heard that a company of emigrants was on its way from Salt Lake City, bound for California. Said company arrived at Cedar City tarried there one day, and passed on for California After said company had left Cedar City the militia was called out for the purpose of committing acts of hostility against them Said call was a regular military call from the superior officers to the subordinate officers and privates of the regiment at Cedar City and vicinity, composing a part of the militia of the Territory of Utah I do not recollect the number of the regiment I was at that time the Bishop of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints at Cedar City Isaac C Haight was President over said Church at Cedar City and the Southern settlement in said Territory My position as bishop was subordinate to that of said president W H Dame was President of said Church at Parowan, in said Iron county Said W H Dame was also colonel of said regiment Said Isaac C Haight was lieutenant-colonel of said regiment and John D. Lee of Harmony, in said Iron county, was major of said regiment Said regiment was duly ordered to muster armed and equipped as the law directs, and prepared for field operations. I had no command nor office in said regiment at that time, neither did I march with said regiment on the expedition which resulted in said company's b[illegible] at the Mountain Meadows in said county of Iron About four days after said company of emigrants had left Cedar City, that portion of said regiment then mustered at Cedar City, took up its line of march in pursuit of them About two days after said company had left Cedar City, Lieutenant-Col I C Haight expressed in my presence a desire that said company might be permitted to pass on their way in peace, but afterwards he told me that he had orders from headquarters to kill all of said company of emigrants except the children I do not know whether said headquarters meant the regimental headquarters at Parowan or the headquarters of the commander in chief at Salt Lake City

When the said company had got to Iron Creek, about 20 miles from Cedar City, Capt Joel White started for the Pinto Creek settlement, through which said company would pass, for the purpose of influencing the people to permit said company to pass on their way in peace I asked and obtained permission of said White to go with him and aid him in his endeavors to save life When said White and myself got about three miles from Cedar City, we met Major John D Lee, who asked us where we were going I replied that we were going to try to prevent the killing of the emigrants Lee replied I have something to say about that '

Lee was at that time on his way to Parowan, the headquarters of Col. Dame Said White and I went to Pinto Creek, remained there one night and the next day returned to Cedar City meeting said company of emigrants at Iron Creek Before reaching Cedar City, we met one Ira Allen who told us that "the d[illegible] had passed devoting said company to destruction After the fight had been going on for three or four days a messenger from Major Lee reached Cedar City who stated that the fight had not been altogether successful, upon which Lieut Colonel Haight ordered out a reinforcement At this time I was ordered out by Captain John M Higby who ordered me to muster armed and equipped as the law directs It was a matter of life or death to me to muster or not and I mustered with the reinforcing troops It was at this time that Lieutenant Colonel Haight said to me that it was the orders from headquarters that all but the little children of said company were to be killed Said Haight had at that time just returned from headquarters at Parowan, where a Military Council had been held There had been a like council held at Parowan previous to that at which were present Col Dame Lieut Colonel I C Haight and Major John D Lee The result of this council was the calling out of said regiment for the purpose already stated The reinforcement aforesaid was marched to the Mountain Meadows and there formed a junction with the main body Major Lee massed all the troops at a spring and made a speech to them, saying that his orders from headquarters were to kill the entire company except the small children I was not in the ranks at that time, but on one side talking to a man named Slade, and could not have seen a paper in Major Lee's hands. Said Lee then sent a flag of truce into the emigrant camp offering said emigrants that "if they lay down their arms he would protect them They accordingly laid down their arms came out from that camp, and delivered themselves up to said Lee The women and children were then, by order of said Lee separated from the men, and were marched ahead of the men After said emigrants had marched about a half mile toward Cedar City the order was given to shoot them down At that time said Lee was at the head of the column I was in the rear I did not hear Lee give the order to fire but heard it from the under officers as it was passed down the column The emigrants were then and there shot down except seventeen little children whom I immediately took into my charge I do not know the total number of said company as I did not stop to count the dead I immediately put the little children in baggage wagons belonging to the regiment and took them to Hamlin's Ranch and from there to Cedar City and procured them homes among the people John Willis and Samuel Murdy assisted me in taking charge of said children On the evening of the massacre Col W H Dame and Lieut Col I C Haight came to Hamlin's where I had the said children and fell into a dispute in the course of which said Haight told Col Dame that if he was going to report of the killing of said emigrants he should not have ordered it done I do not know when or where said troops were disbanded About two weeks after said massacre occurred said Major Lee (who was also Indian Agent) went to Salt Lake City and as I believe reported said fight to the Commander in Chief I was not present at either of the before mentioned councils nor at any council connected with the aforesaid military operations or with said company I gave no orders except those connected with the saving of the children and those after the [illegible] and [illegible] orders [illegible] as bishop and not in a military sense At the time of the firing of the first volley I discharged my rifle [illegible] after and though several subsequent volleys were fired After the first fire was delivered I at once set about saving the children I commenced to gather up the children before the firing had ceased I have made the foregoing statement before the above entitled court for the reason that I believe that I would be assassinated should I attempt to make the same before any court in the Territory of Utah After said Lee returned from Salt Lake City as aforesaid said Lee told me that he had reported fully to the President (meaning the Commander in Chief) the fight at Mountain Meadow and the killing of said emigrants Brigham Young was at that time the Commander in Chief of the militia of the Territory of Utah And further deponent saith not PHILIP KLINGON SMITH

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10th day of April A D 1871

The Hoodlum's History

The Eastern press is profoundly agitated over the above conundrum What is a Hoodlum? asks the New York World Even Manton Marble with all his classic and eastern lore fails to catch the meaning of the new California word We are not surprised The animal is indigenous in our State, is the growth of our State is the growth of our peculiar civilization—belongs to us We proceed to enlighten the savans of the press The Hoodlum is a male of the human species of the genus homo He dresses in broad cloth, wears polished boots carries a cane He is too lazy to work he is too proud to beg he is too cowardly to steal He lives off the hard earnings of the sin and shame of some poor girl whom he abuses and neglects he stands upon the street corners with his Hoodlum comrades of an afternoon stares in brazen vulgarity at honest women and assaults with rude gestures and indecent expressions the soiled doves as they flutter by

He has respectable relatives from whom he borrows when the wolf chases him too closely and during election times he sells his influence for coin and aids to control political results. He travels on shape and talent he bullies the weak and he fawns upon the strong his ambition is to get some sinecure berth in politics he is night watchman or has special policeman's beat—duties which he never performs, except to collect the money He lives at free lunches he amuses himself by rowdy action attends excursions His strong effort is to keep out of the clutches of the law He is the friend and counselor of thieves swindlers and confidence men and finally adopt the felon's profession—then he ceases to be a Hoodlum He becomes a drunkard and is then called bummer He gets shabby, and finds no frail woman to support him he is then vagabond and loafer During the time of his early success he hangs about theaters knows, and is useful to actors and actresses he is a claquet and deadhead He brings up in the home of the inebriate the country hospital or the State prison He is a disgrace to his family and a nuisance to the community —San Francisco Chronicle

Lake Tahoe

[From the San Francisco Times]

Some twelve or fourteen persons have been drowned in Lake Tahoe within the past ten years, none of the bodies have ever been recovered Superstition ever ready to weave a sentiment from nature's laws asserted that there was a dreadful mystery in the non recovery of the drowned, that in fact, a monster had its abode in this fresh water sea, and that the bodies all passed into its capacious maw The true explanation of this mystery never has been given The non appearance of the bodies is due to three causes, The first is, the great purity of the water and its consequent lack of buoyancy Drowning is very easy in it for this reason, though I have not while swimming in it found any more than ordinary difficulty in sustaining myself The second main cause is due to the great coldness of the water Even at this, the warmest season, the surface water is as cold as the drinker desires it to be but it is warm there compared with its temperature at the depth of 100 or 200 feet It is as cold there as the arctic heat of an iceberg When a body sinks in the lake to a depth required it is frozen stiff The process of course preserves it so that the gas which originates from decay in other water is prevented, and distention checked The body is thus kept in a state of greater specific gravity than the water in which it is suspended and thereby prevented from rising to the surface The third cause lies in the great pressure of pure water on anything which is sunk to a great depth in it Corks placed on deep sea nets are pressed down in a week to half their size and one of the oldest residents of the lake expresses the belief, that, by the time a man's body has been suspended for a week at a depth of about 200 feet (it is not likely that it ever reaches the cavernous and almost fathomless bottom of the great lake) the compression of the water has reduced its size to that of a child's Doubtless the idea of uncoffined suspension in such a world of water is not a pleasant one to contemplate but to be pressed into a solid mass and suspended in a liquid coffin of ice temperature is quite as pleasant as interment and moulder ing in the ground

Greeley's Last

A Watertown, Wisconsin brewer recently wrote to Dr Greeley to know why lager beer sours so rapidly in hot weather The following was the reply

CHOPPING GROUNDS AT CHAPPAQUA,
(Thermometer 107° and rising)
August 1st, 1872

Honorable Brewer —Having just finished felling and trimming three giant monarchs of the forest and walked to the Post Office and back distance two miles and 128 rods time 11 minutes 8¼ seconds and if you doubt it you are a liar and a Democrat), I hasten to reply to your inquiry

I have ever considered lager beer a most worthless compound and the makers and drinkers of it all a pack of inherent scoundrels as you will see by last year's Tribune which paper is now exclusively agricultural in its character Specimen copies free low terms to clubs during the campaign in which I of course take no part—only desiring to heal the wounds of fratricidal strife clasp hands across the bloody chasms and roll on the ball until the minions of Grant the despot who was landed by me in the Tribune only because I was fettered by party shackles shall tremble before the majesty of that mighty wave which is rising and bearing me onward and upward to the pinnacle of political glory The reason why it sours is that the hops are generally dug green If they were left in the ground until the skins on them become hard and red we should hear no more complaints about sour beer Stale Graham bread crusts are a good substitute for hops Give them a trial and report the result to yours scientifically

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

[illegible]

The Republican Party of the United States assembled in National Convention [illegible]

1 During the [illegible]

[illegible]

Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation Neither law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race creed color or previous condition of servitude

3 The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured those amendments

4 The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations protecting its citizens everywhere and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty

5 Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fatally demoralizing and we therefore favor a reform of the system by a law which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position without practically creating a life tenure of office

6 We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people

7 The annual revenue after paying current debts should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal [illegible]

8 We [illegible] the Union [illegible] the widows and orphans of [illegible]

9 [illegible] Great Britain [illegible]

10 The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way proposed for reduction in the rates of postage

11 Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital and for labor which creates capital the largest opportunities add a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization

12 We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation

13 We denounce the repudiation of public debts in any form or disguise as a national crime We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt and of the rates of interest upon the balance and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment

14 The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction; and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration

15 We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land

16 The Republican party proposes to respect all rights reserved by the people to themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments It disapproves of asserting constitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the [illegible]

17 It is the duty of the General Government to adopt [illegible] American commerce and ship building

18 We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment practical wisdom incorruptible integrity and [illegible] of U S G [illegible] American people and [illegible]

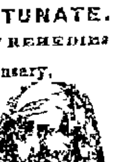
Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhoea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Disease (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has [illegible] from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe and has resumed practice at his Dispensary 623 Kearney street corner of Commercial San Francisco where [illegible] patients and those requiring his services may find [illegible]

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking new remedies and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering from miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death loses his horrors Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to DR GIBBON a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who [illegible] publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures [illegible] Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances [illegible] loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained [illegible] apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written guarantee binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union

All communications strictly confidential

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn-to certificates dupe the unwary some of the so-styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended patients letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
